

Submission Guidelines for Writers

Thank you for inquiring about our submission guidelines; we appreciate your interest in Organize Magazine. We are interested in your creative ideas, and we do accept unsolicited submissions. However, before submitting, please become familiar with our publishing goals and style to determine whether your article is right for us.

Organize Magazine is committed to offering a broad range of organization strategies and solutions. Our goal is to provide doable projects and affordable solutions to our readers, so they can free themselves from clutter, organize their lives, and have more time for what they think is truly important.

Magazine Submissions:

We welcome your ideas; however, we only accept completed articles. Please address all submissions to editorial@organizemag.com, and paste your article into your e-mail with "Submission" as the subject line. Please include the following information with your article:

- Name
- E-mail
- Address
- Phone
- Brief bio

Please do not send us articles that have been published or submitted elsewhere. We prefer to publish only original material, although we will occasionally publish excerpts from books. Please allow six to eight weeks for a response.

Rights:

Upon acceptance, Organize Magazine receives an assignment of the entire right, title, and interest in the article, including the copyright.

Book or Product Reviews:

If you have a book or product you'd like us to review, please send any pertinent information to review@organizemag.com with "Book for Review" or "Product for Review" as the subject line. Allow six to eight weeks for a response.

You may send products or books to:

Organize Magazine
92 Coolidge Circle
Northborough, MA 01532

We look forward to reviewing your ideas.
